

Nathaniel Wayman

1. What role do you think the EACM will play in East Aurora's future?

EACM will continue to be a mainstay in the village, with a nice selection of fresh foods, homemade options, and many organic selections. It is and needs to continue to be part of the fabric of our small and inviting town.

2. In what ways are you working to contribute to and improve the East Aurora community?

In part by joining the board! Also, via my children and the sports they participate in, shopping locally, and finding opportunities to give back.

3. If you can find healthy, organic food at another grocery store, why choose East Aurora Co-op Market?

I believe in supporting and sustaining one another at a local level wherever possible. Also, the selections and freshness of the food at our co-op are excellent.

4. Which of the 10 cooperative values resonates with you most and why?

Self-responsibility resonates most for me; I have always believed in people taking control of their own personal situation and working to achieve any changes desired. Outside help is often deserved and warranted, but the results from this will always be limited compared to what can be achieved by personal motivation and dedication.